Agricultural programs are an effective mechanism to reduce obesity. Obesity is a serious public health concern in the U.S. Since the first stage of the Healthy People 2020 initiative encourages States to develop and implement evidence-based policies to reduce the prevalence of obesity, the State of Tennessee developed a comprehensive interagency initiative in collaboration with the Tennessee Department of Health, the Tennessee Department of Agriculture, and the Tennessee Agricultural Commission. The initiative supported the implementation of agricultural programs as evidence-based mechanisms to reduce the prevalence of obesity. 69 F.3d 540 NOTICE: Ninth Circuit Rule 36-3 provides that dispositions other than opinions or orders designated for publication are not precedential and should not be cited except when relevant under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, or collateral estoppel.
